

SEVEN IS NUMBER ONE.

Number 1 in primetime

2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014

Number 1 in breakfast television

2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014

Number 1 in morning television

2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014

Seven dominates in 2014

My Kitchen Rules – Winner (2.712 million) is the most-watched primetime event.

House Rules surges in 2014 with 2.070 million for the Winner

INXS: Never Tear Us Apart (2.243 million) is the most-watched drama event

The X Factor – Winner (1.619 million) outpaces The Voice – Winner

My Kitchen Rules (1.929 million) is the most-watched regular programme on television.

House Rules (1.582 million) moves into the top ten regular programmes.

Seven is number 1 in sports

AFL on Seven: The Grand Final is the most-watched event: 2.828 million viewers

The Melbourne Cup: 2.178 million viewers

The Australian Open Men's Final: 1.687 million viewers

Seven is number 1 in advertising revenue

2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014