Wimbledon starts Monday LIVE on 7TWO and Channel 7

Live and free coverage of Wimbledon starts this Monday on 7TWO from 8.30pm AEST, switching later to Channel 7.

Tennis fans will see the best two matches exclusively live each day on 7TWO or Channel 7, along with plenty of other top matches, so viewers can be sure to see plenty of Aussies in action as well as the top seeds. Viewers will also be kept up to date with all the results and happenings around the courts.

All singles and doubles finals, as well as the singles' semi-finals, will be exclusively live on Channel 7, while starting on 7TWO in some states.

Seven's broadcast will be hosted by Todd Woodbridge with expert commentary from three-time Wimbledon champion John Newcombe, along with Rennae Stubbs, Sam Smith and Geoff Masters.

In addition, there will be commentary from a string of the biggest names in tennis via the host broadcaster BBC, among them John McEnroe, Pat Cash, Boris Becker, Tracey Austin, Lindsay Davenport and Martina Navratilova.

Wimbledon 2013 marks a return to the All England Club for the third time for the Seven Network. Seven brings a wealth of experience and expertise in covering the game of tennis, culminating in the recent announcement Seven will broadcast The Australian Open until 2019.

On Sunday June 23 in the lead-up to the tournament Seven will also be airing:

- A 2013 Wimbledon Preview outlining the form of this year's players in the men's and women's draws including all the top Aussie hopefuls

9.30pm Sunday on 7TWO in Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth

- The Wimbledon Film a documentary on the definitive story of the 2012 Championships, including the epic final between Andy Murray and Roger Federer.

10am Sunday on 7TWO in Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth
