Seven unleashes Super September

The new X Factor spearheads Seven's dazzling September schedule which includes the premiere of global hit game show The Chase Australia, new Australian drama 800 Words and the television event, Peter Allen: Not The Boy Next Door.

Australia's number one television network, Channel Seven, is set to unleash an unprecedented amount of new Australian content and the best of the new US series, starting in September.

Dannii Minogue is joined by Guy Sebastian and international music superstars Chris Isaak and James Blunt for an all-new season of The X Factor.

One of Australia's biggest stars, Erik Thomson, is back in the irresistible new drama 800 Words.

It's a hit with audiences around the globe – now the general knowledge game show with a difference lands on our shores with The Chase Australia, hosted by Andrew O'Keefe.

And hot on the heels of Seven's hugely successful drama collaborations with Endemol Shine Australia on INXS: Never Tear Us Apart and Catching Milat, comes the story of one of Australia's most iconic entertainers, Peter Allen: Not The Boy Next Door.

Also launching on Seven from September are the previously announced fast tracked new US shows Heroes Reborn, Quantico and The Player, plus these new Australian series:

Beach Cops – The heat is on for the police men and women who work the busy beat of Sydney's iconic Northern Beaches, where the beaches are packed and the bars are pumping.

Gold Coast Medical – This gripping series captures all the challenges and triumphs of a day in the life of the Gold Coast's biggest hospital.

Mesmerised – Laughter, mischief and mayhem unfold as world-renowned stage and television hypnotist Peter Powers and his subjects wreak havoc on an unsuspecting Australian public.

What Really Happens In Thailand – A no-holds-barred look at what Australians really get up to in one of our most favourite holiday hotspots.

Seven's Director of Network Programming, Angus Ross, said: "New, fresh and different. It's our most compelling quarter four ever."
