

18 March 2014

Statement from Seven on John Stephens

Key programming executive, John Stephens, has decided to remain at the Seven Network, despite Network Ten's public announcement on 7 March that he would be joining Ten and was critically important to Ten's turnaround strategy.

Yesterday in the Supreme Court, Justice Brereton not only refused Ten's application for interlocutory relief against Seven and Mr Stephens but also ordered Ten to pay Seven and Mr Stephens' legal costs.