Statement from Tim Worner, CEO, Seven West Media

Ian Ross was a champion bloke.

News rooms bring out the best of characters and Roscoe was one of the best of the best.

Everyone who had the opportunity to work alongside Roscoe during his 50 year journalistic career will remember him with tremendous affection.

Ian joined the Seven News team in Martin Place in 2003, after a lengthy spell with Channel Nine, Sydney.

It was a seamless, comfortable transition, exactly like everything Roscoe undertook, and there can be no doubt he was instrumental in what became a critical period for Seven. He was proud of that. And he deserved to be.

Our love and thoughts are with Ian's longtime partner Gray and other members of his family. They all meant the world to Roscoe. And Roscoe meant the world to us.
