A statement from Seven West Media

Seven West Media (ASX: SWM) welcomed the statement today from Minister for Communications, The Hon Michelle Rowland MP, on AFL media rights.

SWM Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, James Warburton, said: “As a proud, Australian-owned free-to-air television network, Seven welcomes Minister Rowland’s statement today, which backs up the Albanese Government’s stance on the issue of anti-siphoning prior to the federal election.

“Seven will continue to fight fiercely to ensure all Australians can watch the sports they love live and free.”
