

13 August 2013

Seven statement on appointment of Harold Mitchell as Chairman of Free TV Australia.

From Tim Worner, Chief Executive Officer, Seven West Media:

“Nobody really believed Harold when he said he was going to retire, he’s got way too much to contribute. Harold and retirement does not compute. It is a telling sign for the media industry that someone who gets it as well as he does is prepared to endorse the power of free TV. We are all looking forward to working with him.”

From Kerry Stokes, Chairman, Seven West Media:

“Harold is an icon and has been a long and passionate supporter of our industry. He will be terrific in his new role as Chairman of Free TV Australia.”