HOME AND AWAY stays hot this summer

After last night's dramatic season finale, HOME AND AWAY doesn't stop with the launch of Presto's Home and Away: An Eye for an Eye and the Home and Away Investigation app.

This summer is set to be the ultimate HOME AND AWAY multimedia experience with the Presto original, Home and Away: An Eye for an Eye, and the Home and Away Investigation app now available to stream and download.

Both follow last night's thrilling season finale where newlyweds Leah (Ada Nicodemou) and Zac's (Charlie Clausen) happy day ended with the shocking murder of Charlotte (Erika Heynatz).

The highly anticipated Home and Away: An Eye for an Eye, centres on the Braxton family and will see the special guest return of Health (Dan Ewing) and Bianca (Lisa Gormley) to Summer Bay. Ricky (Bonnie Sveen) has found out that Brax (Stephen Peacocke) is alive and now his arch nemesis, Gunno (Diarmid Heidenreich), is coming after her and their son. When Casey is kidnapped in a shocking act of revenge, family and friends must reunite in a desperate race against time. The exclusive Home and Away special event is Presto's first local commission and is now available to stream.

The Home and Away Investigation app will allow fans to take the lead in the investigation of Charlotte's murder. Users of the app will be able to narrow down 24 Summer Bay suspects and eliminate someone from the investigation each week, based on the evidence they find. Users will be able to interrogate suspects by asking them questions; use decoders to crack pins and unlock access to phones and content; and unscramble audio messages to listen to voicemails or phone calls. After nine weeks, the top suspects will be revealed and the unmissable 2016 season return of HOME AND AWAY will continue the search for Charlotte's killer.

Who shot Charlotte? Find out when HOME AND AWAY returns after the Australian Open.
