

3 December 2014

Seven Melbourne farewells Graeme Hill

Melbourne program manager Graeme Hill has announced his resignation.

After 33 years with Seven, including 14 years in Melbourne, Graeme leaves a legacy of ratings success with Seven Melbourne winning the past eight survey years in a row, including in 2014.

“Seven has been a big part of my life and I’d like to thank everyone for their support – and the laughs – over the years. It’s great to go out on top with another win and I’m looking forward to having a nice long holiday,” Graeme said.

The Managing Director of Seven Melbourne, Lewis Martin, said: “We’ll miss Hilly but after 33 years of service we also understand the decision. He leaves our Melbourne station in great shape and we wish him every success for the future.”

Seven’s Programming Consultant John Stephens will take the reins as Melbourne program manager in a caretaker capacity.

Further information:

Drew Warne-Smith

DWarne-Smith@seven.com.au