

21 March 2013

Statement from Kerry Stokes, Chairman, Seven West Media, on Media Reform Proposals

Seven West Media is pleased that the four remaining bills in the Government's media package will not be proceeding. We had expressed reservations about both the content of these bills and in particular the process. Media policy is vital to the democratic health of our country. We are always ready to consider and debate proposals for improvement in this important area.