Triple M's Saturday Rub now on 7plus Sport Iconic footy talk show available to stream for remainder of 2026 AFL Season

The Seven Network and Triple M have strengthened its consolidated footy offering for 2026, with Triple M's iconic Saturday Rub available for fans to stream on 7plus Sport for the remainder of the 2026 AFL season.

AFL fans can catch the much-loved Triple M Footy show featuring James Brayshaw, Billy Brownless, Bernie Vince and Damien Barrett on 7plus Sport, bringing to the platform their mix of analysis, breaking news, opinion and the unmistakable Triple M Footy chemistry that takes footy seriously, but never itself.

After the Saturday Rub airs live on Triple M, fans will be able to stream the Saturday Rub from 3.00pm AEST every Saturday on 7plus Sport, starting with a huge Saturday of footy for Round 12 of the AFL season on Triple M, this weekend.

Fans can also catch full match replays, mini's, pre- and post-game coverage, as well as Seven's ancillary programs including The Front Bar, The Agenda Setters, Unfiltered and Sunday Footy Feast on demand at any time, with Triple M's The Saturday Rub the latest addition to the stacked offering.

The Saturday Rub for Round 12 will follow Seven's usual Thursday Night and Friday Night Footy coverage, with two blockbuster encounters involving four big Victorian clubs, as Saint Kilda take on Hawthorn on Thursday Night Footy, while the following night sees in-form Carlton clash with the Geelong Cats on Friday Night Footy, both live and free on Seven, 7mate and 7plus sport from 7.00pm AEST.
